

Arizona Board of Osteopathic Examiners

The Arizona Board of Osteopathic Examiners licenses and regulates more than 2,500 doctors of osteopathic medicine and more than 200 osteopathic interns and residents receiving postgraduate training in Arizona hospitals and clinics. As defined by Arizona law, the board's mission is to protect the public by setting educational and training standards for licensure, and by reviewing complaints made against osteopathic physicians, interns and residents to ensure their conduct meets professional standards. The board is comprised of five osteopathic doctors and two public members. Board members are appointed by the governor to a five-year term and may serve up to two consecutive terms. Currently, Scott A. Steingard, D.O., serves on the FSMB Board of Directors as a Director-at-Large.
