

Bacteriology and Hygiene

Questions asked by the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners, November 6th, 1911

By JOHN J. SULLIVAN, A. M., M. D.

1. Differentiate between antiseptic and disinfectant; toxin and anti toxin.
2. What is a contagious disease? An infectious disease? Give two examples of each.
3. Describe the steps necessary to determine whether a given specimen of exudate is diphtheritic or not.
4. Describe the gonococcus of Neisser and method of staining for it.
5. What are pathogenic micro-organisms? Give examples.
6. Describe the bacillus oedematis maligni.
7. Describe the diagnostic uses of tuberculin; the therapeutic uses.
8. Name three diseases caused by spirochaetae.
9. Give the general directions for use in the care of public schools.
10. What do you mean by the establishing of a quarantine? What diseases would you quarantine, and why?